

Attention: Dogs without examen or only BH can start in BGH1, Dogs with IPO (or simular national examen), Obedience, FH or Rescue-Dog examen HAVE to start in BGH-3!

Companydog (Begleithundeprüfung) BgH-1

Exercise 1: With leash heeling	30 points
Exercise 2: Off leash heeling	30 points
Exercise 3: Sit in motion	15 points
Exercise 4: Down with recall	15 points
Exercise 5: Lay down while distracted	10 points
Total	100 points

With leash heeling 20 free points

- a) Commands: "heeling". The doghandler is allowed to give the commands at the turns, and when changing speed.
- b) Execution: 50 steps ahead , turn and another 10 to 15 steps, 10 steps running, 10 steps slow. After this in normal step again - is at least one right turn, left turn and one turn to perform. At the end of the exercise, the handler and dog go to the judge in a group of at least four people. The handler must heel the dog a person the right and left one person handle and stop at least once in the group. The judge is free to demand a rerun. The handler and dog leave the group and assume a basic position.

Off leash heeling 20 free points

- a) Commands: "heeling". The doghandler is allowed to give the commands at the turns, and when changing speed.
- b) Execution: 50 steps ahead , turn and another 10 to 15 steps, 10 steps running, 10 steps slow. After this in normal step again - is at least one right turn, left turn and one turn to perform.

3) Sit in motion 10 points

- a) Commands: "heeling", "Sit"
- b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog. After 10-15 paces, the dog must be on the verbal command "sit" and quickly set straight without the handler interrupting his steps or looking back. After another 20 steps the handler stops and immediately turns to his dog. On the judge's signal the handler returns to the dog and takes on its right side position.

4) Down with recall 10 points

- a) Commands: "heeling", "Down," "Here," "heeling"
- b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog. After 10-15 Schritten The dog must go on the verbal command "down" and just lie down quickly without the handler interrupting his steps or looking back. The handler goes on another 20 steps, then stops and turns immediately to face his dog. On the judge`s signal, the handler calls his dog with the command "Here" or the dog's name to himself. The dog must come happily, quickly and directly, and either closely and straight in front of the handler, or immediately go into the final position. The dog shows a sit in front, the dog on the verbal command "heel" and quickly set straight beside the handler.

8) Lay down while distracted - 10 points

- a) Commands: "Down", "Sit"

b) Execution: The handler puts his dog down with the command "down" at the place instructed by the judge. Now, the handler go away at least 20 steps from his dog, turns to his dog and stand still. The dog must be calm, without influence from the handler, while the other dog performs exercises 1 to 6. When the handler is instructed by the judge, he returns to the dog and stands on its right side. After about 3 seconds (on judge's advice), the dog has to sit up on the verbal command "sit" quickly and straight.

Companydog (Begleithundeprüfung) BgH-3

Exercise 1: Off leash heeling 20 free points

Exercise 2: Sit in motion 10 points

Exercise 3: Down with recall 10 points

Exercise 4: Stand stay 10 points

Exercise 5: Retrieve on flat ground 15 points

Exercise 6 Retrieve over the A-wall (140 cm) 15 points

Exercise 7: Send out 10 points

Exercise 8: Lay down while distracted 10 points

Total 100 points

Off leash heeling 20 free points

a) Commands: "heeling". The doghandler is allowed to give the commands at the turns, and when changing speed.

b) Execution: 50 steps ahead , turn and another 10 to 15 steps, 10 steps running, 10 steps slow. After this in normal step again - is at least one right turn, left turn and one turn to perform. At the end of the exercise, the handler and dog go to the judge in a moving group of at least four people. The handler must heel the dog a person the right and left one person handle and stop at least once in the group. The judge is free to demand a rerun. The handler and dog leave the group and assume a basic position.

The order of exercises 2 to 6 have to be shown in ono of the following 5 variants:

Option 1: Exercise 2 - 4 - 5 - 6 - 3

Option 2: Exercise 4 - 3 - 6 - 2 - 5

Option 3: Exercise 6 - 4 - 5 - 3 - 2

Option 4: Exercise 3 - 2 - 6 - 5 - 4

Option 5: Exercise 5 - 6 - 3 - 2 - 4

All participants must demonstrate the exercises 2 through 6 in the same order.

2) Sit in motion 10 points

a) Commands: "heeling", "Sit"

b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog. After 10-15 paces, the dog must be on the verbal command "sit" and quickly set straight without the handler interrupting his steps or looking back. After another 20 steps the handler stops and immediately turns to his dog. On the judge's signal the handler returns to the dog and takes on its right side position.

3) Down with recall 10 points

a) Commands: "heeling", "Down," "Here," "heeling"

b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog. After 10-15 Schritten The dog must go on the verbal command "down" and just lie down quickly without the handler interrupting his steps or looking back. The handler goes on another 20 steps, then stops and turns immediately to face his dog. On the judge's signal, the handler calls his dog with the command "Here" or the dog's name to himself. The dog must come happily, quickly and directly, and either closely and straight in front of the handler, or immediately go into the final position. The dog shows a sit in front, the dog on the verbal command "heel" and quickly set straight beside the handler.

4) Stand stay - 10 points

a) Commands "heeling", "Stand", "Sit"

b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog. After 10-15 paces the dog must be on the verbal command "stand" to stop immediately and precisely, without the handler breaking stride, or looking back. After another 20 paces the handler stops and immediately turns to his dog. When instructed by the judge, the handler goes directly back to his dog and stands on its right side. After about 3 seconds, when instructed by the judge the dog on the verbal command "sit" and quickly set straight.

5) Retrieve on flat ground - 15 points

a) Commands: "Retrieve", "off", "heel"

b) Execution: From the basic position the handler throws a dumbbell, about 10 steps away. The verbal command "bring" should be given until the dumbbell is lying still. The verbal command "retrive" the dog fast and directly go to the dumbbell, pick it up immediately and return to the handler quickly and directly. The dog must come closely and straight in front of his handler or sit down immediately to the left side of the handler. The dumbbell has to be kept quiet in the mouth until the handler gives the signal "Off". after the delivery the dumbbell has to be kept quiet with an outstretched arm down on the right side of the body. On the verbal command "heel", the dog must quickly set straight beside the handler. The handler may not leave his place during exercise.

6) Climbing jump over A-Wall (140 cm) - 15 points

a) Command: "Jump," "retrieve", "off", "heel"

b) Execution: From the basic position the handler throws a dumbbell over the wall. The command "Jump" may be given until the dumbbell is lying still. The dog beside the handler quiet and free sitting dog has to jump on command "Jump" - "Bring" over the wall, climb quickly and directly to the dumbbell, pick it up immediately, immediately climb back over the wall and bring the dumbbell to the handler quickly and directly. The dog has to sit closely and straight in front of its handler, or sit down immediately on the left side of the handler. He has to keep the dumbbell quiet in the mouth until the handler gives the command "Off". after the delivery the dumbbell has to be kept quiet with an outstretched arm down on the right side of the body. On the verbal command "heel", the dog must quickly set straight beside the handler. The handler may not leave his place during exercise.

7) Send Out with down - 10 points

a) Commands: "heel", "send-out", "Down", "Sit"

b) Execution: From the start position, the handler goes straight ahead with his free-heeling dog in the direction instructed to him. After 10-15 steps the handler gives the dog the verbal "Send-out", raising the arm once and stops. The dog has to run a straight line without remove the speed at least 30 steps. On the judge advise the handler gives the verbal command "down" to which the dog has to lie down immediately. On the judge's signal the handler returns to the dog and enters right next to him. After about 3 seconds (on judge's advise) the dog must sit up on the verbal command "sit" quickly and straight.

8) Lay down while distracted - 10 points

a) Commands: "Down", "Sit"

b) Execution: The handler puts his dog down with the command "down" at the place instructed by the judge. Now, the handler go away at least 20 steps from his dog, turnes to his dog and stand still. The dog must be calm, without influence from the handler, while the other dog performs exercises 1 to 6. When the handler is instructed by the judge, he returns to the dog and stands on its right side. After about 3 seconds (on judge's advice), the dog has to sit up on the verbal command "sit" quickly and straight.